The musical numbers are said to carry on the action of the piece. The scene of the opera is laid in Buda Pesth, and Mr. de Koven has given the music a Hungarian tinge.

"The Golden Butterfly" is operatic. There is one love waltz song that occurs about a dozen times in the opera and is the motif. It is entitled "Do Not Forget Me," a dreamy waltz which is one of the tavorites of the winter.

The fort is surrounded by Indians, and all hope is lost when at last the de-fenders are rescued by a band of cow-boys. The stage is filled in an instant with the plunging, bucking ponies of the cowboys, and the Indians are driven

BELASCO-Filipino Band Concert.

Owing to the success of the Filipino Band concerts at the Belasco Theater for two Sunday nights, the management a third Sunday concert has been arranged.

The band is quartered at Fort Myer, waiting final arrangements for a transcontinental tour to the Pacific coast. This week they are playing in Richmond, Norfolk, and Newport News, returning here for the concert Sunday night. Special arrangements are to be made to make the program the most interesting of the series. While the Flipinos will, as usual, show their expert familiarity with the classical compositions, the program of selections will be on the whole distinctly popular, and will include several native fantasies, thoroughly novel and Olrental in treatment. The band is quartered at Fort Myer, Arrangement; are under way for an extended engagement of the band at the Broadway Theater, New York city. COLUMBIA-Princeton Triangle Club.

The Princeton Triangle Club, seventy-five strong, will be the attraction at the Columbia Theater Saturday night.

As their annual offering they will produce a new musical play entitled "The Duchess of Bluffshire," fresh from the pen of Frank L. Cunningham, and set to music by Arthur H. Samuels, the former of New York city and the class of 1909, and the latter of Hartford, Conn., a classmate.

The story of the play is said to be clear and logical. It is not a remarkable plut, but it is more than a mere excuse for songs and dances and pictures, Many of the songs are essential to the rational development of the plot and the excellence of the music is not only worthy of the book, but suits it. It is almost entirely free from rag-time and some of the airs are described as being as original as they are charming.

Competent judges have pronounced in its favor. Their verdict was given after a dress rehearsal at the Astor Theater in New York last Monday. Some twenty persons of note in the theatrical world, managers and dramatists, were bidden to this dress rehearsal. At its conclusion all congratulated Messrs Wagenhals and Kemper on having obtained this play, predicting for it a tremendous popular success.
